

Dear ladies and gentlemen of the Cilentano-team!

This year, my husband and I spent our Pentecost holidays in the Cilento for the second time. The apartment at Castellabate arranged for by CILENTANO satisfied us in the same way the apartment at Pisciotta did last year.

The “Cilento-Service 2010” booklet which you sent us contained a lot of useful information. We always love to receive “insiders’ tips” and we are curious in following them up. With such a tip, today, I would like to turn your attention to a special restaurant which has not yet been included in your booklet:

I’m talking about Ristorante “Principessa” in Via Buttafuoco at Castellabate. It is managed by the couple Ciro and Cristina Ceriello. Cristina is a superb cook preparing meals in an extraordinarily tasty manner. Every day, fresh-caught fish, tasty vegetables, various pasta dishes, best wines are served. She does all the deserts herself. The liqueur and espresso topping off the meal were always on the house (in the words of Ciro: “Liquore e café offro io”)!

Dinner at the “Principessa” is really a pleasure for all your senses! Ciro is very attentive as to his guests’ wishes. It is quite evident that quality is very important to him and the restaurant’s atmosphere speaks for itself! From its small balcony with glass balustrade you can see the Isle of Capri and when it is dark the lights hint at the various towns at the Amalfi coast. Even on somewhat cooler evenings you can enjoy the view through the large window panes from inside the restaurant. [...]

I do hope that many of your customers will get to know Ciro and Cristina and their “Principessa” – a true gem at Castellabate!

Kind regards
