

Our holiday in the Cilento was simply beautiful. We can highly recommend the B&Bs La Giacaranda and Giostell. The rooms were beautifully furnished and superbly located. The town was still within walking distance. La Giacaranda offered an excellent breakfast and upon request also supper. At Giostell, breakfast was served at the nearby bar. Perfectly Italian.

Our hiking tours were very exciting, even though we did not always arrive at the destination described. Sometimes a real adventure, like in the wilderness. Nevertheless, it was always worth setting off, because the hinterland as well as the vistas you meet with were fantastic, too. We will surely return.

Kind regards
