

Dear Cilentano travel team!

Thank you for your really excellent assistance and support. We have rarely to hardly ever experienced such qualified and efficient, quick, uncomplicated and above all friendly support and organisation as we have with you. Thus, we will quite naturally recommend you, as we, in fact, have already done (But only to those who appreciate the value of such things and who open up adequately to the way of life at their holiday destination).

The owning family of Villa Belvedere was very cordial and courteous. The villa's location is good; the villa itself is lovingly designed with good furnishing. It was simply perfect and fantastic!
