

DEAR CILENTANO – TEAM

For your future planning, I will gladly pass on to you some information about our journey.

Why did we make this journey?

Because, during off season, we like to travel to regions which have been largely spared from tourism, but still harbour numerous beauties. In this respect and with your support, we really got our money's worth in the Cilento.

I would only like to mention the endless clean beaches inviting you to bathe and hike. The steep coasts with their grottos and small grottos and small bays which you cannot get enough of. And let's not forget the wild and romantic mountain roads and villages with their fantastic views. Nothing spoiled, simply authentic nature incl. very good water quality.

We had half-board accommodation at Hotel Calanca in Marina di Camerota. Nice, clean, quiet family hotel located very close to the sea. Next time, however, we would book only breakfast and eat out in the evenings [...]. The soups were overwhelmingly good – typical Italian rural cuisine.

Your travel and tour guide was very helpful. I would, however, enclose the map offered.

In order to reach one's destination from Naples, you should, in any case, recommend a good value car rental. Should I be allowed to grade this journey, it would be: 2.

Regards from Heinz S., maybe there will be another time.
